

Report on "Cultural Tales"

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS)

Event Name: Cultural Tales

Date: 08/02/2025

Venue: L-006, VLTC

Number of Participants: 23 Teams

Introduction

As part of Blitzschlag, the annual cultural fest of MNIT, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organised an engaging and entertaining event named Cultural Tales on the second day of the fest. The event aimed to bring participants together through a series of fun and interactive games that tested their wit, teamwork, and knowledge of Indian culture.

Event Structure

Team Size: 2 to 5 members

Total Registered Teams: 23

Rounds: 3

Duration per Round: 10 minutes

The event was structured into three rounds, each designed to provide a unique and enjoyable challenge:

Round 1: Riddles

The first round tested the participants' problem-solving abilities through a series of riddles. Teams had to think quickly and creatively to answer within the given time.

Round 2: Fun Games

The second round included light-hearted and engaging games that required coordination and teamwork. This round aimed to create a lively and competitive yet friendly atmosphere.

Round 3: Bollywood Theme Game

The final round was based on Bollywood, where teams had to showcase their knowledge of Indian cinema through various activities. This round added an element of nostalgia and excitement to the event.

Conclusion

Cultural Tales was a non-competitive event designed purely for fun, and thus, no winners were declared. The event successfully fostered camaraderie and enthusiasm among the participants, making it one of the most enjoyable experiences of the fest. NSS's initiative in organizing this event was well-received, and it contributed to the vibrant spirit of Blitzschlag 2025.
